

Celebrate our grand re-opening this weekend!

From: The Mint Museum

Sent: Thursday, September 24, 2020 12:52 PM

Subject: Celebrate our grand re-opening this weekend!

Come intrigued. Leave inspired.

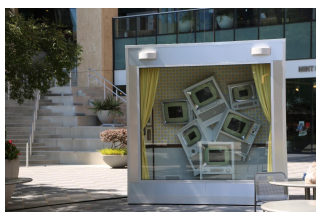

It's time to celebrate! Join us for our grand re-opening with a FREE weekend of activities Mint Museum Uptown and Mint Museum Randolph re-open to the public with regular hours beginning 11 AM Saturday, Sept. 25. Celebratory activities include live music by JazzArts Charlotte Friday evening and Saturday afternoon on Mint Museum Uptown's Van Allen Terrace. The Mike Strauss Band plays Sunday afternoon on Mint Museum Randolph's front terrace. Enjoy a cash bar and food for purchase, and museum admission is FREE all weekend. Weekend activities are sponsored by Chase.

New safety guidelines require visitors wear a mask, and timed-ticketing is in place so you can engage with the art in a stress-free environment. Reserve your ticket today.

Details

Tune In arrives on the Wells Fargo plaza outside Mint Museum Uptown

Created to put historical perspective on the pandemic crisis and social unrest of 2020, the 4,000-pound diorama replicates a 1960s living room and includes six stacked vintage televisions that display rolling footage of media

Classic Black wins bronze at Southeastern Museum Conference awards

Classic Black: The Basalt Sculpture of Wedgwood and His Contemporaries was awarded bronze in the Excellence in Exhibitions category at the 2020 Southeastern Museums Conference for its beautiful design and programming from 1960s counterculture to hard news and live performances.

contemporary presentation. See the winning exhibition on view at Mint Museum Randolph.

Read

Details

Curator's Pick

We are sharing pieces from our galleries and collections to help bring peace and inspiration while we all practice social distancing. Our curators have chosen these pieces to give you the museum experience from home. To see more #CuratorsPicks, follow us on our social media channels.

Unknown Maker. "Huipil," late 20th century, cotton, velvet. Gift of Gretchen and Nelson Grice. 2001.93.10

Huipil. A huipil is a hand-woven blouse made and worn by Maya women in Guatemala. Using a back-strap loom, the women create colorful brocaded designs. Patterns can be very elaborate to show the maker's skill, and to indicate the village or town of origin. An indigenous style, the huipil is widely recognized as an outstanding example of textile art and vernacular dress.

Don't Miss This

- A virtual screening of Let the People Decide at 7 PM Thursday, Sept. 24. Hosted by Levine Museum of the New South, the documentary spotlights the historic and contemporary impact of voter suppression.
- The Mad About Modern Tour is coming to you via virtual tours. Join NCModernist founder George Smart for a discussion about Charlotte Modernism at the kick-off event 6 PM Saturday, Sept. 26.
- "Discover Different" at the Charlotte Film Festival. Purchase an all-access pass or choose from the film menu, through Sunday, Sept. 27.

North Carolina
Arts Council
Fifty years of leadership

The Mint Museum | Mint Museum UPTOWN at Levine Center for the Arts, 500 S. Tryon St, Charlotte, NC 28202

About our service provider

Sent by digital@mintmuseum.org